Sales Performance and Regional Insights

- The Consumer Segment consistently leads in sales, outperforming both the Corporate and Home Office segments across all years.
- The stacked bar chart highlights growth in sales in 2016 and 2017, suggesting that there may be a post-2015 surge in demand for Technology and Furniture products.
- California, Texas, and Florida are the top-performing states in sales, indicating they are key markets. The Northeast also shows strong sales, though smaller compared to the South and West. Larger blue dots in major cities highlight higher sales, suggesting urban areas are more responsive, while rural areas may need additional marketing efforts.
